St Andrew's Summer Fête

A very big thank you to all those who worked so hard on yesterday's fête.

At 10am the rain was coming down in torrents but the forecast was for it to clear by lunchtime with a short shower in the afternoon. Despite doubts we believed that our prayers would be answered and started the setting up in the rain. By noon the sun was out and everybody's spirits were raised.

The afternoon was warm and sunny – and the short shower came but lasted less than a minute and did not interrupt the fun.

There was a good attendance and everybody seemed to enjoy the entertainment – drummers and 'Open the Book', dancers, brass band and soloists – and the stallholders reported good trade throughout the afternoon..

We will let you know how much was raised in next week's pewsheet.

There were some plants left over and also some bunches of spring onions. They are available outside the north door of the church priced at 50p each. Please leave your contribution in the church.
